BECKET PANTRY NEEDS: a double bed. The Care Apartments, a group home for men, is looking for volunteers. They need drivers to help with groceries and doctor appointments (West Island), and cooks. These men would also benefit from friendly visits and/or outings for coffee etc. Info: 514-626-4205.

JUSTICE AND PEACE UPDATE: Last week, we reported that the Development and Peace mining ombudsman petition that you signed last fall would be presented in the House of Commons. Shortly after our bulletin went to print, we learned that our petition was presented in the House of Commons on June 2 and June 5 by local MPs. In addition, on June 3, an MP from Montreal moved that Bill C-584, An Act respecting the Corporate Social Responsibility Inherent in the Activities of Canadian Extractive Corporations in Developing Countries, be read a second time, and referred to a committee. A one-hour debate followed the presentation which had mentioned the work of Development and Peace. We are making progress! Thank you for your support!

FR. JIM'S BREAKFAST: Thank you to all who participated in our breakfast with Fr. Jim McDonald last weekend. Many thanks to Becket's intrepid Social Club members who organized the event, which was attended by 185 parishioners. Special thanks to Becket's Knights of Columbus for preparing a great breakfast and who, with the volunteers, brought it all together. It was so good to see you Fr. Jim! Come back soon!

LORD GRANT MERCY AND LASTING PEACE to those who have died recently, and strength and comfort to those who mourn them: Brian Small, husband of Suzanne Cuillerier, father of Eireann, Michael & Ann.

BECAUSE HUNGER DOESN'T TAKE A VACATION: As summer approaches, many of us look forward to a much needed vacation. However, for many families living in the West Island, a vacation simply means struggling to put food on the table. The West Island Mission invites you to participate in their summer food drive, by dropping off non-perishables at their location, 139 Labrosse, Pointe Claire, from June 9 to August 3, 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, or 9-10 am Saturday.

FUN WITH PHONES: Following are a few amusing phone calls we have received at the parish office lately:

“Can I speak to Father Zugman please?”

“I would like to enquire about the 3 ½ you have for rent...”

“So, the date requested for your wedding is available. I have your name, and now I need your fiancée’s name.”

“.....(crickets chirping)....just a minute, I have to write it down.”

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY! On the feast of St. Joseph, patron saint of the universal church and Jesus’ earthly father, Pope Francis urged all dads in the world to stick by their children’s side, teaching them, guiding them and loving them.

“I ask that you have the grace to be very close to your children, letting them grow, but being by their side. They need you, your presence, to be there, your love!” the Pope told fathers present in St Peter’s Square.

The Pope dedicated his catechesis to the role and example of St. Joseph. March 19 also marks the celebration of Father’s Day in Italy, as well as the first anniversary of the formal inauguration of Pope Francis’ ministry as bishop of Rome and pope. St Joseph’s “great mission is to be a guardian,” the Pope said. The saint is a model for all educators, whether they are teachers, catechists, parents, religious or priests, “who are fathers, too, you know!” he said.

Like an educator, St. Joseph guided and accompanied Jesus so he could grow in “wisdom and age and grace,” Pope Francis said. This is the same thing all parents must do, and “it would be a serious mistake to think that a father and a mother can’t do anything to teach their children to grow in God’s grace,” he said.

Even though God was Jesus father, St Joseph lovingly took on the paternal role and taught the young Jesus various skills, the value of work, reverence for the Lord, and fidelity and obedience to God’s will, the Pope said.

In brief remarks to Arab-speaking visitors, especially those from Lebanon and the Holy Land, the Pope said St Joseph “knew how to cross the darkness of doubt, the experience of exile and fleeing from home, without ever losing faith in God and his love.”

“Learn from him that only trust in God can turn doubt into certainty, evil into good, total darkness of the night into a radiant dawn,” he said.

In his main audience address, the Pope gave his heartfelt greetings to all fathers in the square, asking them to show who they were by raising their hands. “Oh, how many dads!” he said. “Best wishes! All the best on your day!”

Pope Francis led the crowd in praying the Our Father, urging them to remember God the father in heaven, but also their own fathers and every father, whether alive or deceased.
