TRINITY SUNDAY

The making of the sign of the cross, which professes faith in the redemption of Christ and in the Trinity, dates from the earliest centuries.

Before receiving the sacrament of baptism, Christians respond to a 3-part question when asked to witness their faith in the Father, the Son and the Spirit by saying "I do." The faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity. Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:

not in their own names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the "hierarchy of the truths of faith". The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men "and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin". Catechism of the Catholic Church 232-234

PRAYER TO THE HOLY TRINITY

Glory be to the Father,
Who by His almighty power and love created me,
making me in the image and likeness of God.
Glory be to the Son,
Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell,
and opened for me the gates of heaven.
Glory be to the Holy Spirit,
Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
and continues to sanctify me
by the graces I receive daily from His bounty. Amen.

CORPUS CHRISTI ON THURSDAY THIS WEEK!

Our Archbishop Christian Lépine will celebrate Mass at Mary Queen of the World Cathedral and immediately afterwards, in Eucharistic procession, we will walk through the streets of Montreal to reach St. Patrick's Basilica. Our participation is an affirmation of our belief that Jesus is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament and is with us in our journey through life to our heavenly homeland. This is a time when Catholics can show their love for Christ in the Real Presence by honoring Him in a very public way. It is also a wonderful way in which we can show our love for our neighbors by bringing Our Lord and Savior closer to them.

To reserve your seat on the bus which will take us from the parking lot of St. Thomas Becket to the Cathedral at 6:00 pm, and afterwards bring us back from St. Patrick Basilica to our church's parking lot, contact Bernard Ratneiya at (514) 943-3478, or bratneiya@yahoo.com. The cost is $10.00.

SPECIAL EVENT NEXT SUNDAY As we do every year to celebrate Corpus Christi in the parish, next Sunday, June 3, following the 11:00 Mass, we will process with the Blessed Sacrament around our parish grounds to honour the Lord and bring Him into our community.

BECKET PANTRY NEEDS: Salmon, rice, green beans, yellow beans, peas, creamed corn, tomato juice, tomato sauce, tinned tomatoes, sidekicks, gravy, muffin mix, jello, pudding, tea, tinned fruit, crackers, cookies, toilet paper, shampoo, bar soap, laundry detergent, dish soap.

WORTHWHILE READING

The One Thing Is Three: How the Most Holy Trinity Explains Everything. With humor and ease, Father Michael Gaitley, MIC, deftly unlocks the "one thing," the key to the Church's wisdom, and the greatest mystery of the Catholic faith: the Most Holy Trinity. Far from being a scholarly or academic read, The "One Thing is Three" makes deep theology accessible to every-day Catholics. What's more, it makes even what's familiar or forgotten appear in a way that's new, exciting, and relevant. Thus, The "One Thing" is Three brings its readers a unique and powerful experience of the faith.

DID YOU KNOW?

The "Becketmail" electronic bulletin that goes out every Monday is much more than a copy of the bulletin that you may have read on Sunday: there are photos, links to articles, and features of all kinds that cannot be included in the print bulletin. If you are not receiving the e-bulletin and would like to, just send your email address to newsletter@becket.ca. If there are others—friends, family, anyone anywhere in the world—whom you think might enjoy receiving it, you may submit their email address (no name required). They can always request to be unsubscribed if they prefer not to receive it.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

"We are all dependent on each other. A man ought not, therefore, just figure out what he would like, but rather ask how he can help others. Then he will see that fulfilment does not lie in comfort, ease, and following one's inclinations, but precisely in allowing demands to be made upon you, in taking the harder path. Everything else turns out somehow boring, anyway. Only the man who 'risks the fire,' who recognizes a calling within himself, a vocation, an ideal. He who takes on real responsibility, will find fulfilment. It is not in taking, not on the path of comfort, that we become rich, but only in giving." ~ Pope Benedict XVI

DON'T ASK "WHY?" ASK "WHAT?"

St. Padre Pio used to say the worst question in the world was "Why?" The Christian's question is "What?"

- What does God ask of me in this situation?
- What can I do to overcome this difficulty?
- What can I learn from this sorrow?
- What can I do to help others with similar sorrows?

Christ has much to teach us all by the Cross. The Saints are those who were always willing to learn. The message of Saint Benedict Joseph Labre is: whatever you are or whatever you have, give it to God with all of your heart.

~ Rev. Benedict J. Groeschel, C.F.R.
