8 TIPS FOR GETTING MORE OUT OF MASS

Many people go to Mass with the expectation that they are supposed to “get” a lot out of it. But, what you get out of Mass is dependent on what kind of changes you are willing to make in your efforts before, during and after Mass, because what you put into Mass determines what you get out of it.

1. Properly prepare for Mass.
 - Read and study the readings before you go to Mass, and then listen to them intently while The Word is proclaimed.
 - Study the Church’s teachings. You can’t love what you don’t know.
 - Go to Confession regularly. This will help prepare you spiritually.
 - Pray daily. Without prayer you have no spiritual power!
 - Dress appropriately. You are going to meet the King of Kings.
 - Get there early and sit up front: fewer distractions and more time for prayer before Mass.
 - Once inside, don’t talk or people-watch...pray.
2. Make sure your attitude is adjusted properly
 - Don’t expect to be entertained. You are there to offer God worship and receive grace. It isn’t about being ‘engaged’.
 - Look for God in every part of the Mass.
 - Don’t let outside distractions disturb your internal peace.
 - Find one nugget in the homily to take home with you for the week.
3. Participate fully
 - Sing, even if your voice is bad.
 - Respond and pray with gusto. Give it all to God; don’t worry about others.
 - Remember that during Mass isn’t socializing time.
 - Offer your pain, sufferings, joys and prayers to God.
4. Listen to the Word and be open to it changing you
5. Know, understand, and proclaim your Faith
 - Don’t just recite the Creed – proclaim it like you mean it and understand what you are proclaiming.
6. Be a tither, not a tipper!
 - Tithing means substantial, sacrificial giving to your church. If every Catholic tithed... what could we accomplish in spreading the Gospel:
 - Yes, it is our duty to support the Church, but it does more for our own faith than it does for the Church.
7. When you receive Jesus in the Eucharist – understand what it is you are doing
 - You are taking the Body, blood, soul, and divinity of GOD into you
 - You are experiencing heaven on earth
 - You are becoming one with The Body of Christ
 - Be reverent
 - Realize that He is in everyone else that received Him as well.
8. Tell other people about Him
 - You are now empowered to evangelize (share the Good News of Christ) – which is what the Church exists for.

WORTHWHILE READING: 7 Secrets of the Eucharist, by Vinny Flynn.

Deeply based on the Scriptures, the writings of saints, and the teachings of our two most recent Popes, this profound and remarkably readable book will introduce you to some of the "hidden" truths of the Eucharist - truths that have always been embraced by theologians, saints, and mystics, but have rarely been passed on to the average person in a meaningful way. In 7 Secrets of the Eucharist, these truths are finally made accessible to all, as Vinny Flynn shows how each reception of Holy Communion can be a life-changing experience.

THANK YOU very much for the wonderful and memorable farewell reception last weekend. Thanks for your presence, warm greeting cards, and gifts. Big thanks to Fr. Peter, Knights of Columbus, Social Club, CWL and the office staff who organized this reception. May God bless you all. ~ Fr. Tijo

THE MEDICAL ETHICIST IS IN

The National Catholic Bioethics Center is an excellent organization in Philadelphia (www.ncbcenter.org). Among their many fine resources, the NCBC provides free consultation phone and email services to individuals facing difficult ethical decisions related to health care, even 24/7 in emergencies. They also have a great "End-of-Life" you can order for a small fee (click on "Publications"). Fr. Sabbath is also available to assist with these matters.

“IF WE LET CHRIST INTO OUR LIVES WE LOSE NOTHING, nothing, absolutely nothing of what makes life free, beautiful and great. No! Only in this friendship are the doors of life opened wide.

Only in this friendship is the great potential of human existence truly revealed. Do not be afraid of Christ! He takes nothing away and gives you everything. When we give ourselves to him, we receive a hundredfold in return, yes, open open wide the doors to Christ – and you will find true life.”

~ Pope Benedict XVI

A PRAYER AFTER WORK

Most Merciful Father, thank you for this day of work with all its achievements as well as its burdens. Thank you for all the successes, the challenges, and even the difficulties that it brought me. Your Son once said to his Apostles, “Come by yourselves to an out-of-the-way place and rest a little.” Thank you for this gift of rest. May this time be a chance for me to renew my gratitude for all your blessings. In your great compassion and generosity, please be mindful of those who are out of work. And help me to do a better job tomorrow. I ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. ~ Fr. Peter John Cameron, O.P., Magnificat

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP Every Tuesday at Becket, after morning Mass, we offer devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The framed image that we have been using during our prayer is very old and damaged. Donations are being accepted for the replacement of our image of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The image we have chosen is a beautiful 2’x3’ interpretation by Br Robert Lentz OFM, printed on canvas, at a cost of $500. Please contact the office for details.
