WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: Today, in all the churches of the world, in the bush chapels and the cathedrals, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Today, all baptized people hear the same Word of God, share the same Bread and put everything in common so that the 1,100 dioceses still under the responsibility of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples

(Vatican) may carry out their pastoral projects and help the weakest and the poorest. Today, we celebrate our missionary vocation as baptized people, a vocation of men and women called and sent to serve here... and to the ends of the earth. The missionary Church gives thanks for the generosity of your heart.
