The gluten content is 0.01%. Hosts are made, shipped, and stored in a dedicated gluten-free environment. At communion, please proceed to the left side of the church and remain at the foot of the sanctuary near the railing. A Eucharistic minister will meet you to distribute low-gluten hosts.

WHO IS DOING THE WORK OF TRANSLATION?

The process of translating liturgical texts from the original Latin is a highly consultative work done by several groups. The International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) prepares English translations of liturgical texts on behalf of the conferences of bishops of English-speaking countries. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) and the other member conferences receive draft translations of each text and have the opportunity to offer comments and suggestions to ICEL. Then ICEL proposes a second draft, which each conference approves and submits to the Vatican for final approval. Each conference reserves the right to amend or modify a particular text. At the Vatican, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments examines the translated texts, offers authoritative approval (recognitio) of the texts, and grants permission for their use. Currently the Congregation is aided by the recommendations of Vox Clara, a special committee of bishops and consultants from English-speaking countries. The translation and review process is guided by the guidelines in Liturgiam Authenticam, issued in 2001, an instruction from the Congregation that outlines the principles and rules for liturgical translation. In 2007, the Congregation also issued a ratio outlining the specific rules for translation in English. On March 15, 22 & 29, we will be offering three catechetical sessions about the new translation. These evenings are designed to help parishioners learn the new prayers, and will include video and music presentations as well as Q & A sessions. Together, we will renew our love for the Sacred Liturgy, learn about and understand the changes, and develop an appreciation for the revised translation.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE: March 1 – Diocesan Retreat at Queen of Angels Academy. 6:15 p.m. Cost $6.00. Speaker: Sister Lorna on Blessed Marie-Rose Durocher. It should be a very interesting presentation. Please RSVP by Feb. 23. Shirley 514-626-4002.
