Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them. Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD

Like the disciples in our first reading, we often want to ask the Lord, “When is all of this going to come to fruition? What’s it all about? When is all of this going to make sense?” Reasonable enough questions. And we hear the same answer: It’s not for you to worry about. Rather, get to work! In the Ascension, the Lord moves to a higher dimension and then sends the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, so that we can be empowered to do Christ’s work in the world.

AN INVITATION FROM ST. JOSEPH’S ORATORY

After the winter season, the Garden of the Way of the Cross at Saint Joseph’s Oratory reopens its doors, to the delight of all.

We invite you to come and rediscover this unique place, where nature, reflection, and beauty come together. Whether for a peaceful walk or simply to enjoy a remarkable view of the city, this garden offers a true space for calm and rejuvenation.

You can visit it starting May 1, as the Way of the Cross garden will be open until Thanksgiving. We hope to have the pleasure of welcoming you very soon!

SAINT JOAN OF ARC – FEAST DAY MAY 30

Born in France, in 1412, Joan was the fifth and the youngest child of a peasant farmer. At the early age of thirteen, Joan began to experience supernatural visions.

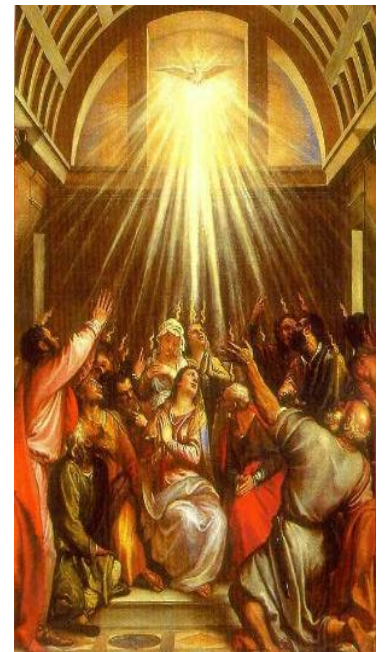

To save France was the mission that was prepared for her, and with God's help, she achieved this military feat. At the age of seventeen, clad in armor and mounted on a horse, Joan led an army of 4,000 men to victory at Orleans. Later, with Joan at his side, the Dauphin of France was crowned King Charles VII. In another military campaign Joan was captured and sold to the British. She was brought to trial and was falsely accused of being a heretic. Her enemies prevailed, and Joan was burned to death in 1431.

Her mother, Isabelle Romée, fought for over twenty years to have her daughter vindicated. Finally, a court appointed by Pope Callistus found her innocent in 1456. In 1920, she was declared a saint, having lived her life dedicated to God's will.

PENTECOST

Pentecost closes the Easter Season in a grand finale. The Holy Spirit, the 'fruit of divine love,' came from the Father and the Son to bring to perfection the work of our sanctification. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "The Church was made manifest to the world on the day of Pentecost by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit." (ccc 1076)

"The mission of Christ and the Holy Spirit is brought to completion in the Church, which is the Body of Christ and the Temple of the Holy Spirit (...) The Spirit prepares men and goes out to them with his grace, in order to draw them to Christ. The Spirit manifests the risen Lord to them, recalls his word to them and opens their minds to the understanding of his Death and Resurrection. He makes present the mystery of Christ, supremely in the Eucharist, in order to reconcile them, to bring them into communion with God, that they may 'bear much fruit.'" (ccc 737)
