"I am most appreciative to the Holy Father for the appointment of Msgr. Leo as the newest Auxiliary Bishop in our Archdiocese. He knows the Montreal community very well and will undoubtedly contribute even more to the spread and strengthening of the faith in our midst. Bishop-elect Frank has acquired a unique and vast experience in serving Holy Mother Church in an array of capacities and has demonstrated the heart of a shepherd throughout these ministries both locally, nationally and internationally. I am especially grateful for the commitment with which he has served as Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia for the last few months. We are blessed to have him serve in this new capacity among us. "I learn with great heartfelt joy the appointment of Bishop Frank Leo as Auxiliary Bishop for the Catholic Church in Montreal. I give thanks to the Lord for this gift which, through the voice of our dear Pope Francis, he makes to his Church, in Montreal, in Quebec and in Canada. I rejoice to learn that this man of God and of ecclesial communion is called to follow the apostles to guide the people of God in their walk and in their Gospel mission.
