the basket.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Reading I: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19 (Appointed Prophet)

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13 (Faith, Hope and Love)

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30 (Sent for All)

Adults: How can I hold on to others and let go with trust in God in order to love more fully this week?

Children: What can I do to show love to others this week?

"IT TAKES A VILLAGE TO RAISE A CHILD", and it takes a collaborative effort of a church to get out 65 Christmas baskets to 65 families in need. As usual, despite my concerns, once again we all came together and made it happen.
Thanks again to all who contributed in any way to our success, donors, families who prepared and delivered baskets, the wonderful garage and Cahill helpers, the secretaries, St. Charles kindergarten and lunch supervisors ($400 raised), schools, Gina's Daycare, companies and all who solicited anything for us. You have carried out the Lord's request to help those in need and you have received the blessings that He promised for helping Him with that ongoing task.

This will be my last year coordinating the project and it truly has been 14 rewarding years but there comes a time to pass the torch and I am hoping someone or group will step up to the plate to keep it going. I have met the most wonderful people during the years of doing the baskets and you are all very dear to my heart. Thanks for your friendship and support. I would be forever grateful if some of you would take the time to email me your feelings about the experiences that came from taking part. They will go into my treasure box of memories. c_moss2000@hotmail.com Sincere thanks one and all, Carolyn Moss

ALPHA UPDATE: The Alpha information evening on Jan. 21 was a great success. Over 50 people attended and all enjoyed a delicious pot-luck supper, and entertainment by Æternal. Special thanks to our presenters Daniel Bastien, Alpha Regional Director for Quebec, and Elizabeth Koesler, assistant to Msgr. Sean Harty. Many thanks to all former Alpha participants who came out to offer their witness and support, and all who helped to set up and prepare for the evening. Three separate Alpha groups were created, and courses will begin shortly.
