Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21 (What Belongs to God)

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY - OCTOBER 19TH Today, in all the churches of the world, in the straw chapels as in huge cathedrals, we celebrate the World Mission Sunday. Being baptized, we celebrate our missionary vocation as witnesses of Jesus Christ. Filled with his Word, we have the mission to spread that good news around us and until the uttermost ends of the earth. The Lord still tells us: Go, "give them to eat" (Mt. 14, 16). Give them my Gospel... give them my LIFE.

Dear Brothers and Sisters, may the celebration of World Mission Day encourage everyone to take renewed awareness of the urgent need to proclaim the Gospel. I cannot fail to point out with sincere appreciation the contribution of the Pontifical Mission Societies to the Church's evangelizing activity... May the collection that is taken in all the parishes on World Mission Day be a sign of communion and mutual concern among the Churches. Lastly, may prayer be intensified ever more in the Christian people, the essential spiritual means for spreading among all peoples the light of Christ, the "light par excellence" that illuminates "the darkness of history" ("Spe Salvi", n. 49). As I entrust to the Lord the apostolic work of the missionaries, the Churches all over the world and the faithful involved in various missionary activities and invoke the intercession of the Apostle Paul and Holy Mary, "the living Ark of the Covenant", the Star of evangelization and hope, I impart my Apostolic Blessing to everyone.
