QUESTION OF THE WEEK

(Live in God)

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-29 (Trust in God)

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10 (God's Wisdom)

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37 (I have come to Fulfill)

Adults: How does Jesus' new law of love move me to a deeper understanding of the commandments?

Children: How will I act out of love for God and others this week?

WORD OF THE WEEK: CHALICE –

From the Latin word “calix” meaning “cup” (see Ps 116:13; Mt 20:22, 1 Cor 10:16). The use of this term in the Liturgy points to the chalice's function as a particular kind of cup and indicates the uniqueness of what it contains, the very Blood of Christ.

EMBRACING CHANGE IN THE LITURGY:

For many people, change does not come easy. Change requires us to stop doing things a certain way in order to do something else. Many people find comfort in familiar routines and known ways of acting. Change interrupts those familiar routines. But change is also an opportunity to stop and reflect on what we are doing and to come to a better understanding of God, who does not change. What difference will changes in the liturgy make at Becket? Some of the differences will be obvious immediately. We will have to learn new musical settings for the various parts of the Mass. We will learn new words for common prayers, such as the Creed. Those of us who began saying the Mass prayers by heart long ago will need to rely on printed texts again, at least for a while. In the early months of the transition, we may find it more challenging to pray with one voice as people adjust to the new texts and gradually commit them to their hearts. But these surface differences will give way to deeper and more significant changes. If we use the time of preparation well, we will make the changes with a deeper understanding of the Liturgy and a renewed reverence for and appreciation of the Mass. We will hear the prayers with new ears and with new hearts. Our Liturgy will be filled with new life and new spirit as we celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ made present for us. On March 15, 22 & 29, we will be offering three catechetical sessions about the new translation. These evenings are designed to help parishioners learn the new prayers, and will include video and music presentations as well as Q & A sessions. Together, we will renew our love for the Sacred Liturgy, learn about and understand the changes, and develop an appreciation for the revised translation.

PANCAKE SUPPER PLANNING MEETING will take place on Sunday Feb. 13 after the 11:00 am Mass, for all those interested in helping out with our annual Shrove Tuesday pancake supper.
