QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Is 50: 5-9

James 2: 14-18

Mark 8: 27-35

Adults: What is the personal cost of following Jesus Christ? What does it "cost me" to live the Beatitudes and the Commandments, to participate in the liturgy each week or oftener, to seek God in all things (as Saint Ignatius Loyola put it)?

Youth: How does your life convey to others that Jesus is your Lord and Saviour? If you wore no Christian jewelry and spoke no words, how would you tell others who Jesus is?

Children: Think of a time when you asked someone for help and you received help. How did you feel? Think of a time when you asked for help and the person you asked said, more or less, "Goodbye and good luck!" without helping you. How did you feel?

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS

MAKING OUR VOICES HEARD – 2015 FEDERAL ELECTION GUIDE (CCCB – Ottawa) With the federal election campaign underway, the Commission for Justice and Peace of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has issued a guide inviting Catholics to vote with discernment. In its "2015 Federal Election Guide", the Commission lists some basic principles from Catholic moral and social teaching to help voters analyze and evaluate public policies and programs.

As in the previous Guide for the 2011 Election, the document focuses on respect for life and the dignity of the human person, social justice, the family, world peace, and the environment.

While recognizing that there are times when "choices may prove very difficult," the Episcopal Commission recalls that "It is a sign of a healthy community when informed and responsible citizens engage in an ongoing dialogue on major social issues with their political leaders."

A link to the guide is available here:

Copies of the guide are also available in the parish office, at the back of the church, and a copy is posted in the Narthex.
