“JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU”

Devotion to the Divine Mercy was promoted by Sister Faustina Kowalska, canonized on April 30, 2000. Pope St. John Paul chose that day to announce that, "Throughout the world, the Second Sunday of Easter will be given the name Divine Mercy Sunday."

The essential and fundamental characteristic of devotion to the Divine Mercy is trust in Jesus.

“Mercy,” said Pope John Paul, “is an indispensable dimension of love; it is, as it were, love’s second name and, at the same time, the specific manner in which love is revealed and effected vis-à-vis the reality of the evil that is in the world, affecting and besieging man, insinuating itself even into his heart.” In the face of all the manifestations of physical and moral evil, before all the threats that cloud the whole horizon of the life of humanity today, the Church—professing mercy and remaining always faithful to it—has the right and the duty to call upon the mercy of God.

Let us ... boldly proclaim that “God is rich in mercy; because of his great love for us, he brought us to life with Christ when we were dead in sin” (Eph 2:4-5). May Mary, Mother of the Crucified and Risen One and our most merciful Mother too, “continue by her manifold intercession to obtain for us the graces of eternal salvation” (Lumen Gentium, 62).

~ Cardinal Justin Rigali

HOW TO SAY THE CHAPLET OF MERCY:

This chaplet only takes a few minutes to say, on ordinary rosary beads. First, say one "Our Father," one "Hail Mary," and one "Apostles' Creed." Then, on the large beads of the rosary, say the prayer:

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, of your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ . . .

*R*in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On each of the ten small beads, pray:

For the sake of His Sorrowful Passion . . .

*R*have mercy on us and on the whole world.

After reciting all five decades this way, end by repeating, three times:

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One:

*R*have mercy on us and on the whole world.
