PENTECOST SUNDAY

*Come Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of
your faithful, and
kindle in them the
fire of your Divine love. Send forth
your Spirit and they shall be created, &
You shall renew the face of the earth.*

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, instructed the hearts of the faithful, Grant, that by the same Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

"Holy Spirit" is the proper name of the one whom we adore and glorify with the Father and the Son. The Church has received this name from the Lord. The term "Spirit", from the Hebrew ruah, means breath, air, wind. "Spirit" and "Holy" are divine attributes of the three divine persons. By joining the two terms, Scripture, liturgy, and theological language designate the inexpressible person of the Holy Spirit. Jesus calls him the "Paraclete," literally, "he who is called to one's side," advocatus. "Paraclete" is commonly translated by "consoler." The Lord also called the Holy Spirit "the Spirit of truth." Besides the proper name of "Holy Spirit," most frequently used in the Acts of the Apostles and in the Epistles, we also find in St. Paul the titles: the Spirit of the promise, the Spirit of adoption, the Spirit of Christ, the Spirit of the Lord, and the Spirit of God.

WORTHWHILE READING

Journey to Heaven: A Road Map for Catholic Men

A must read for any Catholic man who desires to deepen his daily walk with Christ and live out his Catholic faith more deeply. This is a great practical road map, and written in a way for Catholic men to learn and grow from. If men only knew that the Catholic Church is so rich with tools and teachings on how to attain real peace and happiness, overcome problems and difficulties.

PRAYER HAS THE POWER TO CHANGE LIVES AND HEARTS

"God is a father who never ignores his children when they call to him in times of suffering, loneliness and despair. Although at times it seems that so many of our prayers seem to have no result, Christians are called by Christ to insist and not give up. Prayer, prayer always changes reality, let us not forget that: It either changes things or changes our hearts, but it always changes. In teaching his followers how to pray the Our Father, Jesus explains to them in what words and with what feelings they must turn to God.

'Father' -- that is such a beautiful word to say. We can pray just with that word, 'father,' and feel that we have a father; not a master but a father. At important moments in his own life, Jesus is in an atmosphere of prayer and guided by the Holy Spirit in his actions. He also prays for others, including for Peter who will soon deny him. This consoles us, knowing that Jesus prays for us, he prays for me, he prays for each one of us so that our faith does not fail. We can also say to Jesus: 'You are praying for me; continue to pray because I need it.' (Pray) like that, with courage. Even in his final moments, Jesus is immersed in prayer, for example when consoling the women along the way of the cross, when promising the joys of paradise to the good thief and before taking his last breath. Jesus' prayer seems to dampen the most violent emotions, the desires for revenge and retaliation, he reconciles man with his most bitter enemy: death. When life seems incomprehensible, prayer is ultimately the victory over loneliness and despair, because God is always present. What is at the end of our path, at the end of prayer, at the end of a time of prayer, at the end of life? What is there? There is a father, waiting for everything and everyone with open arms. Let us look at that father."
