A SUMMER PRAYER

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!
Thank You for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.
Thank You for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.
Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace of the summer season.
Draw me closer to You this summer.
Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing.
Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You. Amen.

YOUNG ADULTS

Are you between 18 and 30 years old? Join other young adults for an evening in Old Montreal on Saturday, July 13, including Aura, a unique light and music experience at Notre-Dame Basilica. (<https://www.aurabasiliquemontreal.com/en/>), followed by conversation at a local pub. For more information, contact Russel Niere at russel.niere@gmail.com or call or text at 438-881-8585.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM ST. THOMAS AQUINAS (13th century)

"The person who is not angry when there is just cause for anger is immoral. Why? Because anger looks to the good of justice. And if you can live amid injustice without anger, you are immoral as well as unjust."
