FAITH MOVES MOUNTAINS:

The "new normal" has added increased anxiety to our community. May we suggest this one-hour FREE webinar, hosted by Catholic Action, led by lay minister Adam Paterno. Adam will share an insight on how scripture can help us manage the challenges of the emotional worry, fear, or unease that is sometimes overbearing. June 20, 10:00 am - Register in advance for this meeting by clicking here:

The Most Holy Trinity

LORD, GRANT MERCY AND LASTING PEACE to those who died recently, and strength and comfort to those who mourn them:

Maria Brancati Castiglione, mother of Antonio (Michelina), grandmother of Elena and Sonia.

Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

SPECIAL LAUDATO SI' ANNIVERSARY YEAR

The Vatican announced that it will commemorate the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis' encyclical on the environment with a year-long series of initiatives dedicated to the safeguarding and care for the Earth. The Dicastery [Department] for Promoting Integral Human Development announced a "Special Laudato Si' Anniversary Year" from May 24, 2020, to May 24, 2021, which will emphasize "ecological conversion in action." As the world continues to deal with the coronavirus pandemic, the dicastery said, the encyclical's message is "just as prophetic today as it was in 2015. Truly, COVID-19 has made clear how deeply we are all interconnected and interdependent. As we begin to envision a post-COVID world, we need above all an integral approach as everything is closely interrelated and today's problems call for a vision capable of taking into account every aspect of the global crisis. Laudato Si' ("Praise be to you, my Lord") can indeed provide the moral and spiritual compass for the journey to create a more caring, fraternal, peaceful and sustainable world. Among the events set to take place throughout the year are prayer services and webinars dedicated to environmental care, education and the economy. The dicastery also detailed the rollout of a seven-year journey toward integral ecology for families, dioceses, schools, universities, hospitals, businesses, farms and religious orders. It said that amid the current pandemic, "We have, in fact, a unique opportunity to transform the present groaning and travail into the birth pangs of a new way of living together, bonded together in love, compassion and solidarity and a more harmonious relationship with the natural world, our common home. As Pope Francis reminds us, all of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of creation, each according to his or her own culture, experience, involvements and talents." Pope Francis recently expressed his hope that the message of Laudato Si' will encourage people to take upon themselves the shared responsibility of caring for the Earth: "In these times of pandemic, in which we are more aware of the importance of caring for our common home, I hope that all our common reflection and commitment will help to create and strengthen constructive behaviors for the care of creation," the pope said.

TRINITY SUNDAY

The making of the sign of the cross, which professes faith in the redemption of Christ and in the Trinity, dates from the earliest centuries.

Before receiving the sacrament of baptism, Christians respond to a 3-part question when asked to witness their faith in the Father, the Son and the Spirit by saying "I do." The faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity. Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their own names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the "hierarchy of the truths of faith". The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men "and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin". Catechism of the Catholic Church 232-234

WORTHWHILE READING

Catholicism in the Time of Coronavirus, by Stephen Bullivant, with a forward by Bishop Robert Barron. Only $1.38 on Kindle!

The COVID-19 pandemic has been, for countless people around the world, a great and unexpected trial. But for Catholics, who were already struggling with the abuse crisis and a dramatic rise in disaffiliation, this trial is not only economic, social, or medical; it is spiritual. Plunged into a time of darkness and separated from the sacraments and their parish communities, the faithful are feeling isolated, disheartened, and uncertain about what the future holds. This new book from Word on Fire Institute Fellow Dr. Stephen Bullivant is an insightful and encouraging analysis of the coronavirus, shedding light not only on the Church's present moment or similar crises of the past but also on the immediate future. A former Oxford professor and expert in Catholic disaffiliation, Dr. Bullivant looks at the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on the Church from both the spiritual and secular perspectives, weaving in his own personal reflections as a Catholic convert and a husband and father. It is a unique roadmap for this challenging time, one that will help to bring clarity, focus, and energy to Catholics everywhere.
