SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE:

The Feast of Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as an antidote to secularism, a way of life which leaves God out of human thinking and living. The feast proclaims in a striking and effective manner Christ's kingship over individuals, families, society, and nations. Just as the Feast of Corpus Christi was instituted when devotion to the Eucharist was at a low point, the Feast of Christ the King was instituted during a time of waning respect for Christ and the Church. Today's Mass establishes the titles for Christ's kingship: 1) Christ is God, the Creator of the universe and hence wields a supreme power over all things; 2) Christ is our Redeemer; 3) Christ is Head of the Church; 4) God bestowed upon Christ the nations of the world as his special possession and dominion. Christ's kingdom is: supreme, universal, eternal, and spiritual, not of this world.

THE BEAUTY OF THE PSALMS

“Dear Brothers and Sisters, in our continuing catechesis on prayer, we now turn to the Book of Psalms, which can be considered a great treasury of prayers. The Psalms teach us to pray to God in words that he himself has given us. In them, we encounter the entire gamut of human emotions, from praise, petition, and joyful thanksgiving to anguished supplication for deliverance from life's bitter disappointments and sorrows. The Psalms teach us that God is not deaf to our prayers, especially those that arise from a broken heart and a troubled spirit. The Psalmist's repeated cry, ‘How long, Lord?’, is itself an acknowledgment that, amid our every trial and tribulation, God hears our voice and never abandons us. As a loving Father, he weeps for our sufferings in this world, yet in his wisdom, he has a saving plan for each of us. The Psalms are thus a guide to growth in the practice of prayer. They open our hearts to ever deeper hope in God's providential care; they confirm our trust in his promises, and they inspire us to persevere on our life-long journey of faith in his word.”

WORTHWHILE READING

Rome Sweet Home: Our Journey to Catholicism Paperback,
by Scott & Kimberly Hahn

One of the most popular and influential Catholic books of recent times, by best-selling author Scott Hahn and his wife Kimberly, tells the story of their journey to the Catholic faith. Scott was a Presbyterian minister, the top student in his seminary class, a brilliant Scripture scholar, and militantly anti-Catholic ... until he reluctantly began to discover that his enemy had all the right answers. Kimberly, also a top-notch theology student in the seminary, is the daughter of a well-known Protestant minister, and went through a tremendous dark night after Scott converted to Catholicism. Written with simplicity, charity, grace and wit, the Hahns' deep love and knowledge of Christ and of Scripture is evident and contagious throughout their story. Their love of truth and of neighbour is equally evident, and their theological focus on the great importance of the family, both biological and spiritual, will be a source of inspiration for all readers. “To those with sincere and open hearts it will bring great joy and fulfilment.”

WORDS TO REFLECT ON

Father we thank Thee who has planted Thy holy name within our hearts.
Knowledge and faith and life immortal Jesus the Son to us imparts.
Thou, Lord, didst make all for Thy pleasure, didst give man food for all his days,
Giving in Christ the bread eternal;
Thine is the power, be Thine the praise.
Watch o'er Thy Church, O Lord,
In mercy, save it from evil, guard it still,
Perfect it in Thy love, unite it, cleansed and conformed unto Thy will.
As grain, once scattered on the hillsides,
Was in the broken bread made one,
So from all lands Thy Church be gathered into Thy kingdom by Thy Son.

From the Didache (the Teaching of the Twelve Apostles), c. 110 A.D.

PRAYER OF ABANDONMENT OF BLESSED CHARLES DE FOUCAULD

Father, I abandon myself into your hands; do with me what you will.

Whatever you may do, I thank you. I am ready for all, I accept all.

Let only your will be done in me, and in all your creatures.

I wish no more than this, O Lord.

Into your hands I commend my soul; I offer it to you with all the love of my heart, for I love you, Lord, and so need to give myself, to surrender myself into your hands, without reserve, and with boundless confidence, for you are my Father.
