Am I Not Your Mother?: Reflections on Our Lady of Guadalupe by Luis Maria Martinez

Eight chapters of homilies and reflections by Archbishop Luis María Martínez, first Primate of Mexico.

- ❖ Unfolds the profound meaning of Mary's words to Juan Diego in 1531
- ❖ Emphasizes the ongoing nature of the Blessings Mary has bestowed on us as patroness of the Americas
- ❖ Highlights the role Mary continues to play in overcoming adversity in our lives

In the wake of the persecutions of the Church in Mexico, Archbishop Luis María Martínez, first Primate of Mexico, preached these encouraging sermons to the faithful gathered at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. These meditations speak to us all in an intimate voice of the most tender love of Our Lady of Guadalupe, who has been declared "Patroness of the America" by the Church. In these pages, you will learn more about the significance of Mary's apparition and her words at Tepeyac. In the words of the Archbishop himself, "We must trust fully and lovingly in the Most Holy Virgin of Guadalupe. May no sorrow afflict us; may no pain disturb us; may no persecution make us tremble! Here is Mary, who is our mother; she is life and health; we live under her protection and we leave everything to her."
