LORD, GRANT MERCY AND LASTING PEACE to those who died recently, and strength and comfort to those who mourn them:

Sharon Hennessy, sister of Angela Colford; Evelyn McGuire, sister of Joan Mitchell, aunt of Jeremy Mitchell and Dawn Principe; Christina Di Nunzio, wife of Tom Di Nunzio, mother of Stephen, Pamela, and Andrew; Dorothy McAllindon, aunt of Karen Grant, sister-in-law of Joe Dawson; Bryan McCallum, nephew of Carol Rose

*Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labours for their good deeds go with them. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. ## WORDS OF WISDOM

During the closing Mass for the 10th World Meeting of Families in Rome, Pope Francis recently offered a bit of practical parenting advice and urged families not to be anxious and overprotective: "God loves young people, but that does not mean that he preserves them from all risk, from every challenge, and from all suffering. God is not anxious and overprotective; on the contrary, he trusts young people, and he calls each of them to scale the heights of life and of mission." Pope Francis said that many parents fear that their children won't find their way amid the complexity and confusion created by society, where "everything seems chaotic and precarious," and will lose their way as a result. "This fear makes some parents anxious and others overprotective. At times, it even ends up thwarting the desire to bring new lives into the world," Francis said. Instead of being moved by fear, he urged parents to be moved by the word of God that shows it is not necessary to "shield our children from the slightest hardship and suffering, but to try to communicate to them a passion for life, to arouse in them the desire to discover their vocation and embrace the great mission that God has in mind for them." He also said that Christ had set humanity free from the slavery of selfishness, the tendency "all of us are born" towards, making oneself the centre of everything and being concerned with nothing else but personal interests. The freedom granted by God, Francis said, is not the false freedom of the world that is nothing more than self-indulgence. The family, he said, is not a series of planets or satellites, each on their own orbit. Instead, it is a place of encounter and sharing, where people welcome others and stand by one another.

WORTHWHILE READING

The Fourth Cup: Unveiling the Mystery of the Last Supper and the Cross* by Scott Hahn

"The Paschal Mystery is at the heart of our faith and how we share in Jesus' death, resurrection, and entrance into glory. In The Fourth Cup, Dr. Scott Hahn shows the reader how our redemption follows a plan and pattern established from the very beginning of time. With his exceptional skill as both a scholar and a master teacher, he guides us on a pilgrimage along the path of the gradual accomplishment of God's saving action in history. As always, Dr. Hahn not only enlightens the reader's mind, but also touches the heart. A book made for personal spiritual renewal!" —

Cardinal Donald Wuerl, Archbishop of Washington, D.C.

"Some autobiography, a great deal of theology, the solution to an old Scriptural puzzle— and tons of puns besides. This book is a feast." —Bishop Robert Barron. Dr. Scott Hahn holds the Fr. Michael Scanlan Chair of Biblical Theology and the New Evangelization at Franciscan University of Steubenville and is the founder and president of the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. He is the bestselling author of numerous books.
